ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Michael A. McNary (McNary) (Filing No. 20). McNary seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for July 6, 2009. McNary's counsel represents that McNary consents to the motion and acknowledges McNary understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. McNary's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. McNary's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 20) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for August 31, 2009, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between June 29, 2009 and August 31, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 29th day of June, 2009.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
